OFFICE MEMORANDUM

To: Deputy Chief M. W. Stevenson
Criminal Investigation
Division

November 28, 1963

Subject:

On Wednesday, November 27th, Mr. Bill Walsh, Personnel Director of Texas Instruments called and gave the following information:

On Friday, November 22nd at about 10:45 A. M. one of their employees, Charles Burns ran across Atwell Street to the entrance of Texas Instruments and was struck by a white Cadillac, Louisiana license number 941985. Mr. Burns was not injured sufficiently to call the police but the driver of the Cadillac, a woman who gave the name of Comforto or Comorto came to the office to use the telephone to call an unknown man who arrived in a few minutes to take Mr. Burns to a doctor for examination. The woman driver of the car gave the impression of being in show business and stated to the man who came to get her, "Let's hurry up and get this over with, I have got to get to New Orleans".

It is unknown whether this has any significance in the Oswald case.
